

Agenda

Time	Session
0900 – 0930	Registration, Teas and Coffees
0930 – 1000	Opening Address The chairperson will open the inaugural Middle East user group meeting and provide an overview of the community surrounding OGC's best practice trilogy of PRINCE2, MSP and M_o_R (the users, trainers, consultants and tool vendors)
1000 - 1045	Option 1 MSP Overview MSP Registered Consultant and Lead Author of the MSP manual (2007 version), Rod Sowden, will provide an overview of OGC's highly acclaimed programme management method.	Option 2 Tutorial: Benefit Profiles Approved MSP Trainer, Piotr Kotelnicki, will run a tutorial on constructing Benefits Profiles, Stakeholders Map and Blue Print as basic prerequisites to the proper construction of portfolio of projects and entire programme plan
1045 – 1100	Break
1100 - 1145	Option 1 PRINCE2 Overview PRINCE2 Registered Consultant and Lead Author of the PRINCE2 Refresh project, Andy Murray, will provide an overview of the world's most popular project management method.	Option 2 Tutorial: Product Based Planning Approved PRINCE2 Trainer, Fiona Magee, will run a tutorial on how to construct a Product Breakdown Structure and develop unambiguous Product Descriptions (the core of PRINCE2)
1145 - 1230	Option 1 M_o_R Overview An overview of OGC's Management of Risk guide by Andrew Schuster, Head of Programme Office at the UK Department of Health, who helped write the M_o_R manual.	Option 2 Tutorial: Qualitative/Quantitative Techniques M_o_R expert, Mike Ward, will run a tutorial on applying both quantitative and qualitative tools and techniques to risk identification, analysis and management in an M_o_R framework
1230 – 1315	Lunch
1315 – 1345	The PRINCE2 Cook & the PMI Recipe A comparison of the theory and techniques of project management as embodied in PMI's PMBOK® Guide and the descriptions of how to execute a project in PRINCE2. You can use both!
1345 - 1430	Option 1 - MSP/P2 Case Study Bruce Collins explains how BAT has used MSP and PRINCE2 for their projects and programmes.	Option 2 - Training & Qualifications Salman Bhatti of Maven Training provides an overview of the various project and programme management qualifications
1430 – 1455	Ask the Panel Your chance to ask questions of the day's presenters. Also proposals for how to run the Middle East user group will be presented, debated and agreed including the appointment of User Committee.
1455 – 1500	Closing Remarks The chair will summarise the day.
1500+	Networking The opportunity to network continues - light refreshments to be provided. Plus..... Prize draw for the free PRINCE2 Foundation or Practitioner course.	